

COMPUTER SCIENCE TEACHER

Regis High School is a Catholic, Jesuit, college preparatory school for approximately 530 academically gifted and talented young men. Located in New York City and founded in 1914, Regis is the only Jesuit, full-scholarship high school in the country. Regis is committed to both academic excellence and fostering a spirit of generosity and service to those in need. Regis seeks to inspire and educate the ethnically diverse young men in its care to become imaginative Catholic leaders committed to promoting justice and exerting leadership in the Church, in their civic community, and in their future chosen profession.

Position Summary

Regis seeks a qualified candidate to join its faculty as a Computer Science Teacher and potentially the Department Chairperson beginning 26 August, 2019 for the Academic Year 2019-2020. This is a full-time faculty position. Position comes with full benefits. Work hours may vary and will include some evenings and weekends for special school events. Salary is very competitive for the New York City area and is commensurate with experience. The 2019-2020 school year for faculty members ends on June 11, 2020.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's Degree with a major or minor in Computer Science, Information Systems, or related discipline
- Position will include teaching various courses within the 9th and 10th grade required curriculum, and 11th and 12th grade elective course offering
- Strong digital literacy and computer programming skills
- Experience working with adolescents
- Excellent organization and communication skills

Preferences

- Master's Degree in Computer Science, Information Systems or Education
- Successful teaching experience (high school or higher education)
- Experience teaching topics within the AP Computer Science Principles course
- Leadership qualities and discipline knowledge to serve as the Department Chairperson

Specifically, the Faculty Member:

1. supports the Jesuit/Catholic mission of the school;
2. works in collaboration with the administration in observing the principles and ideals for which Regis High School stands and should conduct himself/herself at all times in a manner which shall not bring reproach upon himself/herself;

3. devotes energies to teaching in conformity with the policies of Regis High School and is subject at all times to the general control and supervision of the Principal;
4. will perform services that include the preparation of examinations, the correction and assignment of grades, and assigned proctoring;
5. responsible also for ongoing professional development, the customary conferences with students and parents, individual guidance of students, serving as an academic advisor with a student advisement group, direction of student extracurricular activities, service on faculty committees, active service in studying department and school issues, preparation of syllabi, attendance at events listed in the school's Faculty Handbook under "Faculty Staff Participation in Key Events," attendance at faculty meetings, and participation in other such professional incidental services, in the judgment of the Principal, the needs of the school require;
6. will be generally available to the students in his/her assigned department resource room through the school day when not teaching class; further, is to have one hour after school availability weekly, according to a schedule subject to the approval of the Principal.

To Apply

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, statement of educational philosophy, and a list of three references by email to Ms. Silvia Gerber, Secretary to the Search Committee, employment@regis.org. Qualified applicants, when all their required documents are submitted, will be contacted regarding next steps. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Applications received by April 12, 2019 will receive priority. Regis is an equal opportunity employer.